

Iran War — Energy & Regional Security Timeline

Alert Window: Today · Generated: 2026-03-09 09:53:15

Situation Brief

The current escalation level in the Iran-Israel-US conflict is severe, primarily driven by Iran and the IRGC, which constitutes 97% of the actor concentration. Iran's recent threats of an energy war, coupled with attacks on oil infrastructure and declarations of force majeure by Bahrain's state oil company, signal a direct threat to oil supply and transit through the Strait of Hormuz. The market is experiencing structural tightening, with WTI at $102.12 and Brent at $103.82, indicating heightened crude prices in the near term. The most critical development to monitor is Iran's response to the ongoing US-Israeli military actions, particularly regarding its oil infrastructure and regional influence.
